

Partnership Agreement Template and Examples

Introduction

Partnership agreements identify the intended results of an engagement between partners joining in an implementation effort. They also identify the scope of work for the engagement, what each partner is expected to contribute and how the partners will work together and share in decision-making. If more than two partners are joining the agreement, additional rows can be added to identify what the partners receive and contribute to the agreement.

Intended Results:

Examples may include:

- Growing the unit or team’s understanding of implementation science and ability to apply it to their work
- Assessing the fit and feasibility of specific evidence-based or evidence-informed approaches for a given context
- Developing an action plan to strengthen the infrastructure needed to use selected programs or practices

Partnership Agreement – Examples

Partnership Agreement – Results First

This partnership agreement example outlines how a state public agency will work with a technical assistance provider on a targeted project. In this example, the state team is a fictional group of state agency leaders and managers working with NIRN, an implementation support provider.

Intended Results:

The state team will:

- Define implementation science and key best practices for public systems
- Apply implementation best practices to statewide implementation of CBT
- Identify strategies for strengthening stakeholder engagement to support implementation
- Understand implementation practitioner competencies in relation to their own roles
- Engage in action planning for strengthening implementation to reduce recidivism

Partnership Agreement – A Partnership to Support Retention of Youth

This partnership agreement example outlines how a group of several different partners may join together for a shared area of need, focus or specific purpose. The partner names and information provided are fictional. In this example, the County Agency (public funder and implementer), Youth Empowerment Agency (private service provider), youth, youth advocates, technical assistance partner (supporting multiple youth serving organizations), implementation science partner (providing implementation science consultation and support) and the funder partner together to increase retention of youth in a youth empowerment project.

Intended Results:

- Co-identify the needs and assets of youth to support retention in youth empowerment program
- Co-identify strategies based on best practices and research to promote and sustain retention of youth
- Co-identify measures of success for retention of youth, timelines and milestones
- Continually assess and improve retention strategy efforts

How we work together

- Co-create a plan for identifying participation and retention needs and assets of youth
- Co-learn about the application of retention and implementation science best practices
- Continually assess and improve participation and retention strategies and efforts
- Co-create and track agreed upon measures of success so we know if we are making progress
